THE STOMACH.

If You Treat it Properly It Will Return the Compliment.

It is not an uncommon thing to hear a man or a woman say, "There is something the matter with my stomach." They never stop to think whether they themselves are not at fault instead of the stomach.

But the truth of the matter is the stomach is all right; nothing the matter with it at all. It is what is put into the stomach that is causing the trouble.

Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atchison (Kan.) Globe:

Strictly Genuine. Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atchison (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Tack, a well known engineer, running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in this office to-day, we asked him about it."

PLEASANT RIDGE.

Mrs. John Lake and daughter, Goldie, spent one day last week with Mrs. Sarah Funk. U. W. Kline is making shingles for "Davy" Kline.

Quite a number of our people attended baptism at the Sideling Hill Christian church. Last Sunday H. H. Strait and wife, and Ephraim Mellott and daughter were called over to Franklin county to attend the funeral of Mrs. Strait's brother Daniel Cunningham, who was born in this county.

Mrs. Frances Mellott spent last Sunday at Lewis Mellott's. Mrs. Morgan Deshong is on the sick list.

Messrs. Mellott & Shives have finished sawing at Lake Garland's and will move next to Squire Garland's.

Man's Unreasonableness.

is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the Republican of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick, she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed at Trout's drug store, price 50c.

JUST EIGHT YEARS APART.

Old Fact Regarding the Ages of Five Successive Presidents. John Adams was eight years older than his successor, Jefferson; Jefferson was eight years older than his successor, Madison; Madison was eight years older than his successor, Monroe; and Monroe was eight years older than his successor, John Quincy Adams.

Washington, Adams, Jefferson, Madison and Monroe ended their terms each in the sixty-sixth year of his age. John Adams, Jefferson and Monroe ended their days on the Fourth of July, the two former dying within a few hours of each other, just half a century after the Declaration of Independence.

John Adams lived to be ninety ears and eight months old, while Garfield died at the middle age of forty-nine years and ten months. Jefferson, Madison and John Quincy Adams lived to be octogenarians; Monroe, Jackson, Van Buren, Tyler, Fillmore and Buchanan got well into the seventies, and Washington, William Henry Harrison, Taylor, Pierce, Johnson and Grant only reached into the sixties.

TABLETTE.

A Few Suggestions as to the Proper Thing When Dining in Society.

Don't butter bread when eating soup.

Don't leave your spoon in the cup when drinking or at any other time.

Don't wash your hands in your finger bowl. Dip the tips of your fingers into the water, and dry them on the corner of your napkin, advises American Queen.

Don't take seeds from your mouth with your fingers, except when eating grapes, in which case the seeds are extracted from the pulp while the skin is held at the mouth and are removed with it.

Don't open the mouth while chewing, thus avoiding a noise made by the lips, which is an unnecessary and unpleasant indication upon others.

Don't insist upon one's having a second helping. Take it for granted that your guests know their own mind; that in fact, she is not a diffident child and would be apt to accept, or even ask for more if she wanted it.

Don't entertain your friend with the price of foods and your experiences in marketing, and don't tell her, for instance, that the charlottes were five cents a pound, or that you had to pay 27 cents a pound for the chops she is eating.

When invited out don't take a critical survey of the table, scrutinizing each object as if more from curiosity than from interest.

Expressions of pleasure or delight at table decorations are, however, always appreciated by the hostess.

Lastly, don't forget that these little observances are founded upon good taste, convenience and kindness.

HOT WEATHER PILES.

Persons afflicted with Piles should be careful at this season of the year. Hot weather and bad drinking water contribute to the conditions which make piles more painful and dangerous. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve stops the pain, draws out the soreness and cures. Get the genuine, bearing the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co. Sold at Trout's drug store.

BIG LOVE, TANNERY.

This end of Ayr township will soon occupy the same relation to Fulton that Waynesboro does to our neighboring county Franklin, namely, it will be the industrial center. Things are doing here, as may be noticed from the following.

Himmel Harris has recently annexed to his blacksmith shop a planing mill with steam power, and is in shape to turn out lumber in a most satisfactory manner.

Robert Gordon is erecting on lands of Hon. D. H. Patterson, at the old Hunter sawmill site below Webster Mills, a big planing-mill and door and sash factory, to be run by water power. This will enable building contractors to get material on this side of the mountain.

William Harr has purchased about eight acres of land lying along Spring Run, from Joseph B. Mellott. There is no better water in the wide world than flows down this beautiful stream and your correspondent has no way of ascertaining just what plans Mr. Harr has for the improvement of this piece of property.

E. A. Baker, the gentlemanly agent and manager of the Domain Lumber Company, is putting in place the necessary machinery to work up the timber on about 1200 acres of land purchased from Joseph B. Mellott, and lying down in the corner. Part of the machinery is now on the ground, and a large number of men are putting it in place, while others are busy grading three or four miles of road bed upon which will be placed ties and iron rails, over which the logs will be taken to the mills by gravity.

We miss our old neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Rineclor, since they purchased the Rev. Chambers farm and have moved to it. With their son, Scott, in Everett, and their daughter, Maude, at Shippensburg, Mr. and Mrs. Rineclor have the home entirely to themselves, and they, no doubt, almost imagine that they are living their honeymoon days over again.

Davy had a little experience a few days ago that he will remember. It seems that his wife left him to rid up some things about the premises, and to burn some brush that had been gathered up in a heap near the house. This was to be done while she went up to call on her old neighbor, Mrs. Geo. F. Mellott. As Davy was about to apply the torch he was horrified to discover that the turkey hen that had been missing for several days, had a nest in the brush heap and was at that moment sitting on it patiently awaiting the appearance of her little brood. Congratulating himself that he had made the discovery in time to prevent having roast turkey for supper, he decided to wait for further orders until his wife returned.

When he informed her of the situation, she said, "Davy, just crawl into the heap, get a firm hold on her, and bring her out, and we will change the nest to another place."

There did not seem to be much the matter with this advice, his wife, however, took the precaution of standing at a safe distance and as Davy was just succeeding in extracting the mammy fowl from the heap, the frightened old hen did not do a thing but flop one of her wings violently against a nail on his cheek that had been nearly setting him crazy. This was the "blow that killed Hannah." What even a preacher would see, feel, and say under such circumstances, would perhaps better not be put in print.

Son Lost Mother.

"Consumption runs in our family, and through it I lost my mother," writes E. B. Reid, of Harmony, Me. "For the past five years, however, on the slightest sign of a cough or cold, I have taken Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, which has saved me from serious lung trouble. His mother's death was a sad loss for Mr. Reid, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected, and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed at Trout's drug store.—Trial bottle free.

Excellent authorities agree that in a thunderstorm the middle of a room is much the safest place in a house. A carpeted floor or one covered by a heavy thick rug is better to stand on than bare wood. It is well to keep away from chimneys and out of cellars. In the open air tall trees are dangerous. A person sheltered under a low tree or shrub thirty or forty feet from a large and lofty tree is quite safe. If lightning strikes in the immediate vicinity it will hit the high tree as a rule, with few exceptions. Water is a very good conductor, and it is well to avoid the banks of streams in a violent thunderstorm.—Detroit Tribune.

SOME USES OF BORAX.

Serves Instead of Soap in Cleansing Handkerchiefs and Fine Fabrics.

In sudden hoarseness or loss of voice from colds relief may be obtained by dissolving and partially swallowing a lump of borax the size of a pea, says Woman's Home Companion. Borax may be dusted on a scald or wet burned surface. It is nice for cleaning the teeth and to sweeten the breath, and a little added to hard water renders it much nicer for bathing purposes.

Equal parts of powdered orris root, borax, prepared chalk and one-sixth as much soap make a fine dentifrice. There is no better remedy for dandruff than a wash of one ounce each of borax and camphor to 1 1/2 pints of cold water. Scurf may be removed from the baby's head by rubbing on a little borax, and then washing with soap and water.

Use one tablespoonful of borax to one gallon of water for washing woolen fabrics; it makes a better lather when dissolved in hot water. For washing silk handkerchiefs and gloves borax may be used instead of soap. It is also nice for cleaning hairbrushes. When meat is ready to hang up, wash it in water as hot as you can bear it on your hands, then carefully cover the flesh side with powdered borax, and you will not be troubled with bugs or worms.

Women Should Sleep More.

A physician, who is a specialist in nervous diseases, says that women should sleep at least nine hours at night and one hour in the daytime. A woman will plead that she hasn't time to lie down for a few minutes in the day time; and she will infringe upon the hours of night, which should be given to sound, healthy, needed sleep in order to finish some piece of work which could as well be completed on the morrow.—She will rush and hurry all day long, and then when the household is hushed in slumber at night, she will sit to read the daily paper, thinking that she will not have to pay for the time she is stealing from the health-giving sleep that comes before midnight.

On The Installment Plan.

"Do your business on the installment plan?" he asked of the tailor.

The tailor looked dubious, for he knew something of the man. However, he finally admitted that he did business that way.

"In that case," said the customer, "I would like to get a suit of clothes on the installment plan."

"All right," said the tailor, "but, of course, you understand what our installment plan is."

"Isn't it like all others?" "Not at all. You see, we deliver the clothes by installments, and your first payment will just about cover the vest. When you make the next payment you will get the trousers, and when the bill is paid we will deliver the coat."

A DISASTROUS CALAMITY.

It is a disastrous calamity, when you lose your health, because indigestion and constipation have sapped it away. Prompt relief can be had in Dr. King's New Life Pills. They build up your digestive organs, and cure headache, dizziness, colic, constipation, etc. Guaranteed at Trout's drug store; 25c.
